Run # 992 RED DRESS

Started and Inspired by Munk

What a Red Dress is and what it should never be

What's another year? There was hardly time to digest the sight of those fashionable dresses from last years run when the call arrived once more to put on your Sundays best and proudly present it to the amazed bystanders.

Minuteman really excelled by not only wearing this beautifully handcrafted dress but also this excellent wig that made him look just pretty as can be, I would like to meet his hairdresser myself. Very comfortably the Vienna Silvesterlauf seldom starts on time (we are all Hashers somehow) so several latecummers were able to join he ranks, the number of participants rose to 18 or 19 and the main aim was to stick together, not too easy considering that there were approximately 4000 runners crusising once around the Ringstrasse in the Vienna Citycentre.

The Ljubljana offspring of the Vindobona H3, impersonated by the GM Gwana was there along with a few visitors from the US of A (sorry folks, your names escaped my memory) and apart from a few faster ones Crag Rat , also wonderfully dressed up managed to slow the main group down so some 10 or 12 runners were able to cross that finish line arm in arm to show some solidarity to the rest. Just like last year we held a celebratory circle in front of the winners podium just where most of those photos were taken.

A Red Dress run here in Vienna is a show a companionship and beery comradery, I already mentioned that participants are not required to pay the Runfee to the main organizer and if so, for Christs sake try to WIN THAT RACE, after all there is always a potential HASH MOBILE (New Car) at stake. One of our fastest at the VH3 not only registered, but also wore no RED DRESS, judge by yourself about the outcome.

A very Hashy New Year to all of you, see you sometimes at a Vindo Boner run, thank you all for your enthusiasm in 2001.

On Out.
